The Location of 'The Northumberland House'

Sat Nav – NE66 3NT

Leave the A1 at the Denwick turn off, north of Alnwick. At the top of the slip road, follow the signs for Denwick. After passing through the village, take the right fork sign-posted Longhoughton. If your vehicle is under 12'3" then stay on this road for 3 miles. Approaching Longhoughton you will pass under the low railway-bridge - take the second right turn, sign-posted Boulmer and The Fishing Boat Inn. After four lampposts, about 300m, turn left into the first road on the left. Springfield is a new cul-de-sac of 18 individual houses on the edge of the village and we are the only holiday cottage.

'The Northumberland House' was designed & built by Jean & Mike Cockerill. It is the second house on the left opposite the open space - has red pantiles on the garage roof, a gravel drive, 3 box trees in front of the garage, a red post box and bay trees either side of the porch.
