All Dressed Up and Somewhere To Go

All Dressed Up – The Northumberland House is now launching its new 2008 collection (see attached image). Highlights from this unique dressing up collection for children are – Pretty in pink, Angels with wings, Sam spiderman, Pirate of the Heritage Coast, Shaun the sheep, Wilhomena the witch, Sydney skeleton, Simon the Cyberman, Lily lilac and Myrtle the masked lady. Accessories include silky bags, headline hats and jangling jewellery. “We did a show with the dressing up clothes, it was brilliant!” Lizzie, Megan & Sarah

Somewhere To Go – Wow, is it somewhere to go? The Northumberland House scored 97% (5 star) in its latest Visit Britain National Quality Assessment. The sophisticated, luxurious, multi-award winning self catering cottage also takes good care of the grown ups and has recently added a 48 bottle wine fridge to help them chill out.

The Northumberland House – a lair with flair – luxury 5 star self catering sleeps 12 in 6 en-suite bedrooms. The house is individually owned, not on a complex and not surrounded by other holiday cottages. It is just 1½ miles from secret sandy beaches and 4 miles from Alnwick.
