Try before you buy...

5 star luxury for £10 per person per night

Book a short break at "The Northumberland House" and add on a night for just £10 per person per night.

This Regional and National Award winning 5* holiday cottage for 12, with a Visit Britain score of 97%, is offering a "Try before you buy more" scheme.

Book a 3 night short break for 12 people starting on a Friday and if you fall in love with Northumberland and the house... and we think you will... then you can add on extra nights for just £10 per person per night.

The owners Mike and Jean Cockerill explained "Guests often discover they have made a mistake by not booking long enough. This scheme allows everyone to stay longer, or if one or two unfortunate members of the group have to return to the rat race, the others can still stay on in the house for an amazing price."

"The Northumberland House" sleeps 12 in 6 en-suite bedrooms. This "lair with flair" is situated close to a secret sandy beach and is not on a complex. It has a private garden, a huge chest of dressing up clothes, masses of toys and games, two televisions, 8 sofas, a fourteen foot dining table and a very serious kitchen and an excellent web site.
